

Axis

Vision and values Act as a ethical and corporate citizen	Management methods Apply efficient management processes	Products & activities today Supply sustainable, profitable and growing products and services	Future development Lead a world industrial strategy	Critical risks Manage raising critical issues
--	---	--	---	---

Stakeholders

Investors	Position ourselves as a reference and ethical industrial investment	Achieve excellence in managing human, financial and material resources	Prioritize creation of long-term and sustainable value through market leadership	Implement a long-term growth strategy triggered by innovation and sustainable development	Mitigate risks and related financial impacts
Society	Practice citizenship beyond our business activities and contribute to scientific knowledge	Reduce global ecological footprint of our production and supply chain activities	Bring products and services preserving environment & health, enhancing global well-being and serving essential needs	Design new products and solutions preserving environment & health, enhancing global well-being, serving essential needs while participating to the evolution of legal framework	Contribute to education, training and employment of young people
Customers & suppliers	Ensure business ethics	Aim long-term competitiveness and ensure product stewardship	Propose quality, efficient, reliable documented and validated products and services	Co-develop new sustainable products, services and solutions and their related markets	Take part to the active management of products end-of-life and Anticipate substitution of products
Personnel & subcontractors	Build a common ethical commitment based on shared values	Guarantee fair labour conditions, safe working conditions, empowerment and career management	Expand multidisciplinary, diversity, network / partnership practices and competencies in sustainable development	Favour creativity and innovation	Minimize critical risks and related human impacts : accidents, occupational diseases, layoffs, loss of expertise
Local communities	Raise community dialogue and participation to local life (neighbours, authorities, associations,...)	Optimize environmental performances	Contribute to local wealth : employment, salaries, purchase of local goods and services	Strengthen local economical development : clusters of economic activities, infrastructures and equipments, competencies	Protect neighbours and their living environment : health, environment, employment, major risks prevention